President L. Guy Nees Completes Successful Second Year

"And you must love Him with all your heart and soul and mind and strength. The second is: You must love others as much as yourself. No other commandments are greater than these."

Mark 12:30-31, LB

This verse became the theme by which Dr. Nees successfully led MVNC for the second year with a record high enrollment of 876.

Dr. Stanton Parry oversees all financial matters of the college. Besides all regular budgeting, he directs special projects such as the commemorative Bell Tower completed during the Bicentennial year and of the college's first four-year graduating class.

He also supervised the construction of a new women's housing complex including a central service unit, for modular buildings housing art, music, para-professional, and Admissions and Registrar.

Dr. Parry is responsible for the three successive years of a black operating budget.

Dr. Robert Lawrence Serves Effectively As Vice-President For Academics

For the second year, Dr. Robert G. Lawrence guides the academic affairs of MVNC. Much work is done behind his desk concerning faculty assignments, course offerings, and curriculum changes.

Under his direction a Title III grant for the Counseling and Placement program was received. Also, a Title IX supervisor was appointed and specifications were fulfilled. An application for further Title III programs was completed for 1977-1978.

MVNC Greets Dr. Edward Cox Warmly As New Chaplain

Mount Vernon Nazarene College welcomed Dr. Edward Cox as her new Chaplain. Dr. Cox coordinated all the weekly chapel services fulfilling a vital need on campus. He was the featured speaker for the Opening Convention in which the chaplain set the tone for the new year with a series of sermons entitled "The Beginning."

Being more than a chaplain of services, he availed himself to students, faculty, and staff for counseling.

“You’d Better Shop Around” Is Twirp Theme

During the last week in October the usual dating system was reversed. The gals asked the guys out, paying for the date and performing the courtesies usually left to the guys. Many a gal was seen paging in the Oakwood Dorm and opening the door for her date. The high point of Twirp Week was the semi-formal banquet held at the San Dar Smorgasbord Restaurant. Captain and Tiennile’s hit song “You’d Better Shop Around” served as an appropriate theme for the banquet.

Seniors Sponsor Softball Marathon To Raise Muscular Dystrophy Funds

134 students, faculty, and administration participated in the sixty-hour-long softball marathon. Softball was played for 377 innings in which the Blue team beat the Green team by a score of 585-541. The Marathon raised over $800 for Muscular Dystrophy.

Spectators helped support the players throughout the 60-hour ordeal.

Even in the middle of the night, players were sliding into base.

Mayor Claude Schlosser threw the first ball to begin the Marathon.

Linda Huffman participated by pitching and acting as score keeper.

Fred Brown opened student revival in keeping with the theme from Psalms.

Larry Hanson emcees Tuesday evening's revival service providing for smooth transitions.

Revival Spirit Invades Campus

Student Revival is a time for spiritual renewal and refreshing. This year the theme from Psalms 139:23-24 was most appropriate. "Search me, oh God . . ." invited students to seek a one-to-one relationship with a very personal God. Speakers included Cliff Myers, Fred Brown, Billy Vinson, John Gundrum, John Hicks, Dennis King, and Tina Wilson.

A wonderful spirit pervaded throughout the week. Revival was an uplifting and inspirational time, continuing even after "Student Revival" ended with breadbreaking during the last chapel that brought Christ's love close.

Ruth Inman plays violin music during the pre-service meditation time.

Many people seek help and find Christ during a wonderful week of revival.

Spooks, Ghosts, Rise Again

This year students at Mount Vernon began the Halloween traditions early. Camp Cornish students enjoyed the customary Halloween games, such as bobbing for apples and wandering through the woods on a ghost walk. One of the highlights of the evening was watching the "Great Pumpkin" rise into the sky.

Friday night's haywagon ride along with a ghost walk in the grove proved to be a chilling experience for some, but the hot chocolate provided by the Student Council soon warmed them up.

During the week of Halloween, Camp Cornish students enjoy the various games and entertainment provided by English faculty members, Dr. Fordyce Bennett and Dr. Arthur Seamans.

Eighth Homecoming Celebrated

Homecoming activities began bright and early Thursday morning with a Pep assembly in the Multi-Purpose Building. The highlight of the evening was the "Night of Candor," a pageant presenting Homecoming attendants and their escorts.

On Friday evening the gym buzzed with excitement as Carol Boston was crowned Homecoming Queen. The Cougar team celebrated by winning the game against Trevecca's Trojans. Afterwards, an Alumni "Snack and Yak" was held in the Cougar Den, art was exhibited in the Lower Barn, and Steve Nielson, pianist, was featured in concert.

Christmas Means Lasting Memories

With the change of season there came chilling winds and snow. But students at MVNC were not disheartened. Even through last minute cram sessions for finals they managed to maintain the Christmas spirit of joy and excitement. Many doors in the dorms were decorated and almost every lobby had a Christmas tree.

The Christmas Banquet held in the MPB, was a night to remember for many. The Alcove Restaurant catered the food, and entertainment was provided by members of the student body. Adding a note of seriousness to the evening, Tina Wilson read from the book of Luke as a reminder of the true meaning of Christmas.

Choosing the most decorated corner in the lobby, Valerie Moore and Rod Morris talk.

Posing as Santa Claus, Nancy Crawford represents the cheerful side of Christmas.

Debbie Flemming and Sandy Holstein help themselves to a cup of punch at the banquet.

Entertainment was provided by Diane Rucker, Jim Couchenour, Nathan Ward, and Dave Aldridge.

Dr. James Dobson spoke to the MVNC campus community in conjunction with the Lecture Artist Series. His speech included the psychology necessary in the family. Dr. Dobson is the author of several well-known books.

Dr. Paul Rees presented the Staley Distinguished Scholar Series as part of the spring Lecture Artist Series. His theme was the need for Christian leaders in today's society.

Rees, Dobson, Miller Add Flavor To Lecture Artist Series

Niven Miller, the famed Scottish baritone, showed his versatility as he performed on campus. Singing the works of Bobbie Burns for the first half of his program, he also presented numbers in several languages including French, German, and Italian. In the second half of the program, Mr. Miller shared poems from his book and completed the evening by singing several hymns.

MoVeNaCo Produces Fall Play, "Our Town"

MoVeNaCo Players presented "Our Town" as the 1976 Fall play. Professor Donald Martin as advisor, and Marsha Stopher as stage manager, spent hours with the cast and crew preparing the play.

"Our Town" is a three-act play by Thornton Wilder, based on the lives of the people of Grovers Corner, New Hampshire; however, it centers around the Gibbs and Webb families with the theme "life is wasted on trivial thoughts and routine tasks."

Esther Duncan portrayed Emily, Steve Wellman as George, Miriam Styers as Mrs. Gibbs, Mark Crippen as Mr. Webb and Tina Wilson as the Stage Manager.

George asks Emily to help him with homework, and she agrees since she's been trying to attract his attention for some time. Few stage props required good acting.

Mrs. Gibbs helps George prepare for his wedding to Emily; to assure his worrying mother, George promises to come home for supper every Thursday evening.

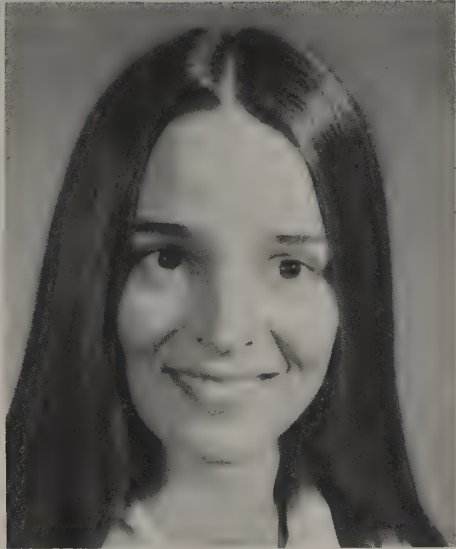

The dead enter the cemetery one by one: played by Naomi Logsdon, Mark Crippen, Mike Hodges, Dan Sams, Debbie Lott, Jerrie West, Miriam Styers, and Jerry Cradlebaugh.

Emily can no longer take the pain of watching the living waste their short lives. She runs back to the dead to escape the anguish and to await the future.

Enerazan Produced By Diligent Staff

A great deal of time and effort must be put into the production of a yearbook. There is the writing and re-writing of copy, the designing and re-designing of layout, and the cropping and re-cropping of pictures. Then there are the production deadlines to be met: a diligent staff is needed to withstand the pressure and to produce a quality product.

However, this year was not all hard work. The ENERAZAN staff traveled to the American Yearbook Company in State College, Pennsylvania. In addition to having a good time, they learned how the yearbook was printed as they toured the plant.

Wendell Mokros, as ENERAZAN editor, managed the staff. Dr. Inman served as advisor; they worked together to keep everything running smoothly. Rick Gardner served as business manager.

Rick Gardner, ENERAZAN's business manager, is shown here working on the budget books.

Sarah Groves, Susan Riffle, and Miriam Styers study a layout being prepared for a deadline. Miriam is faculty editor; Sue is group editor; and Sarah is an activities editor.

Lakeholm Viewer Eyes Of Campus

The eyes and ears of the campus: That is an appropriate description of MVNC's newspaper, THE LAKEHOLM VIEWER, since it covered every important minute on campus this year.

The members of the staff were Theresa Craig, Beth Downs, Tina Gabbard, Jack Holbrook, George Hollin, Lisa Litteral, Naomi Logsdon, Charlie Grimes, Dave Merki, Sue Riffle, Dave Simpson, Marsha Stopher, Rick Weaver, and Brian White.

W. Dan Witter was the editor of the 1976-77 LAKEHOLM VIEWER, Mike Williams served as managing editor, Dave Maute managed the business end of the publication, and Professor Donald Martin acted as advisor.

There were a few regular features this year—Dr. Edward Cox had "Chaplain's Corner," Lisa Litteral drew the cartoon "Monroe at MVNC," and Dan Witter wrote the editorials.

Women Volley Hard In Rookie Season

Mount Vernon Nazarene College added a new dimension to its varsity athletic program this year with the addition of a Women's Volleyball Team.

The women faced a hard veteran schedule and came out with a 1-8 record. Although the record doesn't tell the entire story, the women played competitive ball. All in all, the season was great and spirited.

Patti Shinn nails one as Kathy Lee and Donna Seely look on in action with Cincinnati.

Singing Collegians Tour Educational Zone, Make Plans For Next Year

Dr. David Halverson, director; Lynn Nichols, Amy Herzog and Bev Raley listen to John Ness Beck, well-known composer of contemporary music. The choir hosted Beck during March for a day of workshops and lectures.

The Singing Collegians is a mixed-voice choir selected by audition and directed by Dr. David Halverson. Besides singing for chapels, revivals, and seasonal concerts, the choir toured Ohio, Eastern Kentucky, and West Virginia with a sacred concert and a multimedia musical of the life of Christ.

The choir also began making plans for a concert tour of Western Europe during the January Interim of 1978. Fund-raising campaigns were underway to send the choir to France, Austria, Luxembourg, Germany, and Italy.

For the first time in its nine-year history, the Choral Union expanded the traditional “Messiah” presentation to two performances at the Seventh Day Adventist Church, December 12.

Another first was the addition of nine students soloists who sang during the afternoon performance. Again this year the Choral Union was accompanied by a 28 piece orchestra, under the direction of Dr. David Halverson.

Student solosits were: Esther Duncan, Kathy Linger, Linda Morton, Karen Hayman, Patty Locy, Charlie Grimes, Eric Kesselring, John Boquist, and Rick Hinkle.

The soprano and alto sections complete nearly two months of preparation for the second and final mass choir presentation this school year.

May 14th the MVNC Choral Union presented their final performance of the year at the First Presbyterian Church in Mount Vernon. The mass choir sang two selections "The Peaceable Kingdom" by Randall Thompson, directed by Professor Virginia Cameron; and "The Chichester Psalms," a piece in Hebrew by Leonard Bernstein, directed by Dr. David Halverson.

The latter piece included a mixed student quartet, and a boy soprano solo by Tom Greenslade of Gambier. Professor Lois Brehm provided organ accompaniment, and Rhonda Edwards served as rehearsal accompanist.

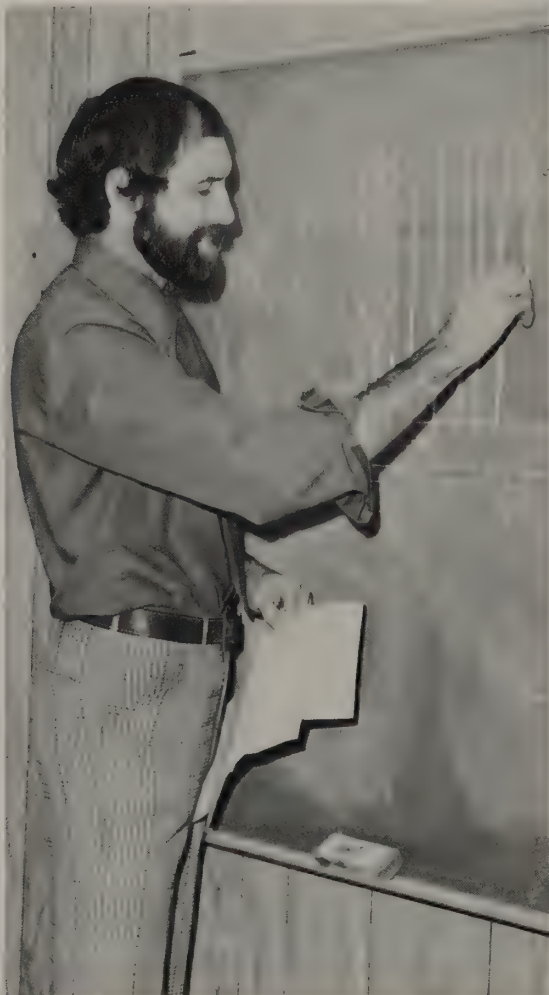

Directors Halverson and Cameron check their musical scores before the Choral Union performance.

Professor Lois Brehm was assisted by Rhonda Edwards for parts of the difficult accompaniment of "The Chichester Psalms."

Students Expand Creative Horizons In Art Courses

Professor Kenneth Shaffer joined the MVNC faculty, providing instruction in drafting, watercolor, and art education.

Peggy Bakewell checks a detail on part of the woven landscape she created during the January interim.

Rose Weeks, Sandy Bryant, Professor Shaffer, and Amy Herzog experiment with "foot painting" during an Art Education Class.

New Professor Jim Hendrickx begins a demonstration of simple printing techniques for his class.

Young Artists Put Minds And Bodies Into Their Projects

Class members look on as Professor Kenneth Shaffer saws wood to make frames for some of their projects. The wood was salvaged from a gutted house on Mt. Vernon Avenue, and provided a rustic, weather-worn appearance to enhance student artwork.

Reading maketh
a full man,
conference a ready man,
and writing an exact man.
And therefore,
if a man write little,
he need have a great memory;
if he confer little,
he had need
have a present wit;
and if he read little,
he had need have more cunning,

CLOSING

Goodbyes are always hard to say, and this one is no exception. The long year has finally ended, and we have completed the yearbook. I would like to thank the staff crew and the photographers for their diligent work throughout the year. Special thanks to Professor Tamara Evans for helping me with the translation.

As you read this book, hopefully, in the not too distant future, it will be a joy to remember this year at Mount Vernon Nazarene College.
